Hello from Ocean City Maryland.

The thing about postcards is that I try to outdo each previous one. Those of you who remember Fisgard Lighthouse know what I'm saying...

This one is a short video clip. I suggest you "right click" the link above, save it to your desktop, then watch it after it finishes downloading. The easiest way to view it is the Windows Media Player (for Windows Users). I chose this media (wmv) to make the video clip as small as possible yet retain some quality.

Cheers,
