Hello from Laredo Texas.

It's a little cool here on the border with Mexico. Laredo is an extremely busy freight portal to and from Mexico. When you drive the roads, the trucks outnumber the cars. And the rail line that crosses the Rio Grande conveys more freight than any other rail border crossing in the US.

Attached is the view I've had for most of the daylight hours since I've been here.

And if you don't like it, you tell the "Complaint Department" where you will surely get what you deserve.

I'm on my way to the next destination of this multi-city tour.

Cheers,
G.

P.S. – the sign says "Department of Complaints, No Crying"
