Hello (see image).

Been a while, but I just haven't been anywhere lately.

Lots of new members. If this is your first Postcard, welcome. To catch up, you can see all the postcards at:

I am taking a road trip to Daytona Beach, Florida, to visit family. TacomaCAM3 Time Lapse Video was set up and recording, this time I got a front row seat on the St. Johns River Ferry to record the crossing. I'll have to wait until I get home to see how the video came out.

So far, I've played pool at Frank's Front Row (where I was treated to an "Irish Car Bomb"), saw the lights at Jackie Robinson Field, had White Chicken Chili & a Bacon Cheeseburger (on two different days) at McK's Irish Pub, a white cheese pizza from Kings, Café Pilon Espresso via a French Press with Half & Half every morning, an authentic Philadelphia Cheese Steak at Kuhana's Pub & Grill, saw the cemetery across the street from the Boot Hill Saloon, had both my hands gnawed on by a mildly carnivorous kitty, and am getting ready to have a nice dinner at the Chart House. What can I say, I have the best tour guide.

In between all of that I managed to get some pictures from walking one of the many bridges crossing the Halifax River.

Also, for the LightHousers / LightStationers, St. Augustine Light. NOTE for those of you who don't know, St Augustine Light is a Light Station, not a Light House.

See you next time.

G.
