Howdy.

Some of you may remember a postcard dated 9 October 2005. Denise & I took a cruise down the Rhine River from Amsterdam, Netherlands, through Germany and France, to Basel, Switzerland:

Our luggage, including my case of cameras, did not make the trip with us. But I did manage to squeak out some images on Denise's camera, at least until the batteries wore out (no charger).

Our last stop before mooring in Basel was Strasbourg, France. While Denise and I enjoyed coffee & strudel in the town square, I stepped out into the square and snapped a couple of shots.

Tonight I was watching an episode of "Apocalypse" on the Smithsonian Channel that I had DVR'd, and a film clip of Adolf Hitler riding in victory through Strasbourg caught my eye.

G.
